BROKE UP STORE.

Crowd of Men Invade Premises of Aged Storckeeper.

Charged with being drunk and disorderly and with raising a row in the store of John McCarthy, an aged white man, who keeps a small grocery store on South Seventh Stoet, John Sullivan and S. H. Byans, two young white men, were fined $2.50 each in Police Court yesterday morning.

Mr. McCarthy's evidence was that a crowd of young white men came into his place and began to knock things about the shelves. When he told them to get out the disorder became worse, and one of them threw cartaloupe at an old negro who entered the giote. Mr. McCarthy hit one of them in the back with a weight, and still they continued to knock the things about. Finally Policemen Lear and Werner appeared on the scene, and Sullivan and Evans were arrested, Not being able to recognize them as two of those who had invaded his premises Mr. McCarthy could not bring direct evidence against them, and so only a light fine was imposed.

"BURGLARS" DISMISSED. R B. Vaughan and L. R. Clarke Ge Under Porch to Get Out of Rain.

R. B. Vaughan and L. R. Clarke, charged with being suspicious characters and suspicious of having attempted to break into the residence of Mr Duke A. Punney. No. 512 East Grace Street, Monday night, were dismissed from the Police Court yesterday merning, when it was shown that they had gone in under the bach porch to get out of the rain. Both men proved that they were good characters and steady workers. Viughan, who lives in Polion, stated that Monday was his twenty-fifth birthday, and he celebrated the event by getting drunk.
